OUR MISSION

Founded in 2018 by Anjul Chandi and Mark Bailey, Thinkspace outfits the work environment with essential, beautiful and fun furniture. A vibrant woman-owned company, Thinkspace is dedicated to bringing life back to today's workspaces.

The company distributes cutting-edge acoustic workspace solutions for focused work, meetings, and collaboration as well as unique and fun products dedicated to employee wellness.

EUROPEAN DESIGNED AND MANUFACTURED

All of our products are European designed and manufactured. Over the past six years, we've become known as a fast growing, innovative, service-oriented leader in the acoustic booths and pod category. Our products are offered to market by over 350 office furniture dealers. In addition to our standard factory direct lead time, customers can utilize our ThinkFast Quick Ship Program, offering a 7 day lead time from three strategic warehouses.

PRODUCTS TO BRING LIFE BACK TO THE WORK SPACE

As the office landscape continues to evolve and change, so is Thinkspace and our product offering. With strong European connections and colleagues, we maintain a pulse on what's new, what's innovative and what's offering a unique perspective to solve real challenges in the North American workspace furniture market.

Our product categories include:

Our product offering will continue to expand while we remain focused on offering a world-class customer experience for our end-users and dealers.

Mork Space BRING FOCUS BACK TO THE WORK SPACE As employees return to work their needs have evolved. A place to focus in an open plan office is a must. An area to take a personal phone or video conference is expected. Thinkspace work space solutions are an easy add on to any office space with minimal floorplan disruption.

WELLNESS SPACE

Wellness is the wave of the future in work spaces. Offering spaces that invigorate and rejuvenate the body and mind benefit every work environment. Implementing live greenery and appreciating each stage of growth. Applying acoustic greenery that reduces office sound and calms at the same time. Take a 15-30 minute break in the Neuron Activation Pod. The low frequency vibration restores your body with it's natural healing abilities.

Whatever your wellness flavor, Thinkspace has a solution!
