COMPANY OVERVIEW

Thinkspace was founded in 2018, by Anjul Chandi and Mark Bailey after an insight for private spaces in an open workplace. During this time it's become known as a fast growing, innovative, service-oriented leader in the acoustic and pod category.

As workplaces continues to evolve, so does Thinkspace and its product offering. As employees return to the workplace for social connections; a place for privacy and focus are more important than ever.

London based with first-hand experience in European trends, it's easy to maintain a pulse on what's new, what's innovative and what's offering a unique perspective to solve real challenges in the US workspace furniture market.
